Michael Ginsburg has been teaching Balkan folk dance for 55 years – he started in 1964 at Michael and Mary Ann Herman’s Folk Dance House in New York City! As a young man, he made research trips to Bulgaria and the various republics of the former Yugoslavia, and studied and did research with Pece Atanasovski in (Northern) Macedonia.

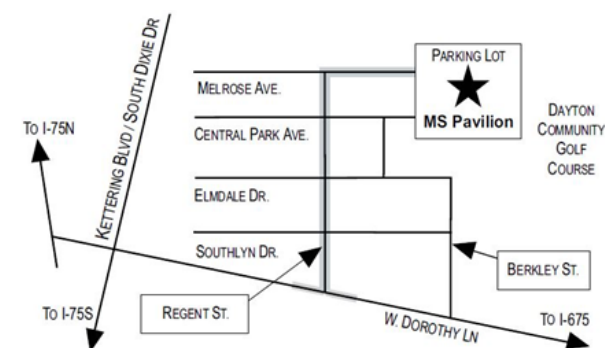

Since then, Michael has presented workshops and seminars all over the world, and has been invited to be on the teaching staff of many folk dance camps in the States (on both coasts!), in Europe, and in Brazil and Japan. Michael taught many of the older Serbian dances we still do, such as Žikino Kolo, Seljančica, and Vranjanka, as well as Macedonian ones such as Dzhanguritsa and Drachevka. For our workshop, he will present a mix of Balkan dances you are sure to enjoy!

Michael is also bringing a small band with him, so that we will have live music for a truly festive party! He himself plays trumpet (among other things); he founded the Zlatne Uste brass band in 1983, and they have been invited to play in both the U.S. and Serbia many times. Michael also plays percussion with various incarnations of the Kolevi bands that we have met, such as Kabile and Bulgarika. The musicians for our Saturday night party will be:

- Michael Ginsburg - tupan
- Belle Birchfield - tambura
- Nikolay Kolev - gadulka
- Donka Koleva – vocalist

MVFD HONORS THE LATE ED ANDERSON, WHO DANCED WITH US FOR MANY YEARS, AND WE REMEMBER HIM WARMLY. WE ARE GRATEFUL TO HIS FAMILY FOR A MEMORIAL DONATION THAT HAS HELPED MAKE THIS WORKSHOP POSSIBLE!
